Development of blockchain technology enhances the image of Ukraine in the world. Kiev has become a meeting place for developers and entrepreneurs working with blockchain and cryptocurrency.

Ukraine cannot boast of reforms, eradicated corruption and the trust of citizens to the state apparatus. However, "thanks" to these factors, digital currency and decentralized blockchain are in demand in the business. Thus, developers are going to have a lot of work.

Blockchain & Bitcoin Conference 2016 will become the most massive Bitcoin event in Ukraine. It will bring together all those who have respect to blockchain and cryptocurrency: from beginners to IT pros, developers of the best-known services to representatives of national banks.
